NOTIFICATION

No.G.19011/15/90-TRP, the 23rd June, 1992. The Governor of Mizoram is pleased to order that the practice of realising the cost of essential commodities like Rice and Sugar from Government Drivers on account of transit loss at penalty rates in the same manner as for the Carrying Contractors shall be discontinued with retrospective effect from 1st June, 1987 until further orders so as to facilitate prompt settlement of account between the Departments of Food & Civil Supplies and Transport including those of the defaulting Drivers. Actual cost of Rice/Sugar lost in transit shall be recovered from the concerned Government Drivers with the penalty rates waived.

The excess amount accruing from the waiver of penalty rates shall be refunded to the Transport Department which will make necessary adjustment in the recovery statement of concerned Drivers.

The Governor of Mizoram is further pleased to order that suitable disciplinary action shall be taken against any defaulting Driver entrusted with transportation of foodgrains and any other Government property.
