3. In the principal Act, for section 5, the following section shall be substituted namely—

“Power to arrest without warrant

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, any police officer not below the rank of Inspector of Police may arrest without warrant any person who is reasonably suspected of having committed any offence under this Act.”

4. In the principal Act, for section 6, the following section shall be substituted, namely—

“Dismissal of employees participating in illegal strikes

6. Any person—
 (a) who commences a strike which is illegal under this Act or goes or remains on, or otherwise takes part in, any such; or
 (b) who instigates or incites other persons to commence, or otherwise take part in, any such strike, shall be liable to disciplinary action (including dismissal) in accordance with the same provisions as are applicable for the purpose of taking such disciplinary action (including dismissal) on any other ground under the terms and conditions of service applicable to him in relation to his employment.”

5. Section 7 of the principal Act shall stand deleted.

6. After section 6 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely—

“Offences to be tried summarily” 7. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, all offences under this Act shall be tried in a summary way by any Judicial Magistrate of the First Class specially empowered in this behalf by the High Court and the provisions of sections 262 to 265 (both inclusive) of the said Code shall, as far as may be, apply to such trial.

Provided that in a case of conviction for any offence in a summary trial under this section, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to pass a sentence of imprisonment for any term for which such offence is punishable under this Act.

Provisions of the Code of Criminal procedure Act, 1973 to apply to warrants, arrest, trials etc. 8. The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act No. 2 of 1974) shall apply as far as may be practicable and not trials etc. inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, to all warrants issued and arrests, searches and seizures, inquiry and investigation, bail and trial, and disposal of seized items etc. made under this Act.

Act to override other laws 9. The provisions of this Act and of any order issued thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law on the subject made by the State Legislature for the time being in force.”

Renumbering of section 8

7. Section 8 of the principal Act shall be renumbered as section 11.
