B. 11011/1/90-HMJ, the 21st May, 1990. In view of the increasing drug abuse among the youth in the State of Mizoram, the need to establish a Centre for identification, treatment, education, after-care, rehabilitation and Social re-integration of addicts has been engaging the mind of the Government for quite sometime. It is also a fact that several De-addiction Centres established by voluntary organisations and religious groups in and around Aizawl have not been able to cope up with the demand in this regard; besides, these centres cannot provide the required rehabilitation measures due to various constraints.

Having regard to the above circumstance and under the provision of Section 71 of the Narcotic Drug & Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, the Governor of Mizoram is pleased to establish the De-addiction-cum-Rehabilitation Centre in the old District Jail at Armed Veng, Aizawl for identification, treatment, education, after-care, rehabilitation and Social re-integration of addicts with effect from 30.3.1990
