NATIONAL YOUTH AWARD SCHEME

Young people in the country constitute a vast potential human resource which, if properly harnessed, can greatly accelerate the process of national development. Recognition of young persons and voluntary organisations engaged in the field of youth work is particularly relevant for this purpose. This scheme of National Youth Award, therefore, aim to achieve this and in some measure.

OBJECTIVES :

2. The objectives of national youth award scheme area :-
 i) to provide young persons between the ages of 15-35 a challenge to achieve excellence in the field of national or social service.

- ii) to encourage young people to develop a sense of responsibility to their community and thus to improve their own personal potential as good citizens.
- iii) to give recognition to the outstanding work done by young persons for national development and/or social service.
- iv) to give recognition to the outstanding work done by voluntary youth organisations for national development and/or social service.

NUMBER OF AWARDS

3. The number of awards given each year would not exceed 50. As the objective of the scheme is to see that young persons achieve excellence in different fields of national or social service and also because in certain years, achievements in certain states might not measure upto achievements in other states, no particular number of award would be prescribed for each state/union territory. One youth award would be given to a voluntary organisation engaged in involvement of youth in various programmes of national development. The central Selection Committee would decide as to whether all the 50 awards or a lesser number of awards are to be given.

FIELDS OF YOUTH WORK

4. The fields of activities to be taken into consideration for the purpose of the national youth award would include social work in the rural areas and urban slums, promotion of national integration, adventure, cultural and recreational Non-formal and adult education programme, work for improvement of the conditions of the persons belonging to the weaker sections of the society, SC/ST and tribal areas, work connected with popularisation of the nationally accepted values, accounting and guiding and any other work considered important keeping in view the local needs and priorities. The State governments would identify priority areas and call upon their youth to concentrate their efforts in these fields.

CONDITIONS OF ELIGIBILITY :

- 5. a) The youth to be recommended for the national youth awards should satisfy the following conditions:
 - i) He/She should be between the age of 15-35 i.e. he/she should have completed 15 years on the 1st of April of financial year for which award is to be conferred and should be less than 35 years of age on the 31st of March of that financial year.
 - ii) He/She should have rendered service in the relevant field during the financial year for which award is to be given and should also be the person who is likely to continue to involve himself/herself in such activities for atleast another two years after the conferring of the award.
 - iii) The service rendered should be on a voluntary basis.
 - iv) The impact of the services rendered by him/her in person should be clearly identifiable, preferably quantitatively.

- v) He/She should not have been conferred such an award earlier. Such of the persons who are recommended for the award once and are not finally selected, can, however, be recommended again.
 - vi) Officers of the Central/State Governments, Universities are not eligible for the award.
 - vii) Other consideration for guiding the selection of youth for the national award would include his/her reputation in the local community. His/her desire for improvement and genuine interest in the relevant field.
6. b) The voluntary agencies to be eligible for the award should :-
- i) be registered under the Registration of Societies Act, 1860 (Act XXI of 1860) any corresponding State Act and have proper constitution or articles of Association;
 - ii) have a properly constituted managing body with its powers and duties clearly defined in its constitution;
 - iii) be in a position to secure involvement on a voluntary basis, of knowledgeable persons for furtherance of its programme;
 - iv) not be run for the profit of any individual or a body of individuals;
 - v) not discriminate against any person or group of persons on the ground of sex, religion, caste or creed;
 - vi) have rendered service in the relevant field for at least three years and should also be the one which is likely to remain engaged in the relevant field for at least another two years after the conferring of the award;
 - vii) not have been conferred such an award earlier (such of the agencies as are recommended for the award once and are not finally selected can, however, be recommended again);
 - viii) have a good reputation in the local community; and
 - ix) the impact of the service rendered by it should be clearly identifiable, preferably quantitatively.

PRECEDURE FOR SELECTION :

6. The initial selection shall be made at the district level by a district committee from amongst the names recommended by the Universities/Colleges, Local Developmental Departments, Voluntary Agencies and Private Bodies, Public Sector Undertaking Nehru Yuva Kendra etc. The Committee will be headed by the District Collector. The other members of the Committee could be representatives of the Universities, Nehru Yuva Kendra and voluntary agencies working in the field of youth. No voluntary agencies would, however, be associated at the time of making recommendations of voluntary youth organisations for the National Youth Award. The district level committees will send their recommendations to the state government/union territory administration by the district level committee would be considered by a State Level Committee under the Chairmanship of Chairman of the State Youth Board, wherever these exist, and under the Chairmanship of the Secretary of the Department dealing with Youth Affairs in cases where State Youth Board do not exist. In case recommendations are not received by the State government/union territory administration by 10th of July, from all the districts, the state level selection committee would proceed to make its recommendations taking into account only such of the recommendations as might have been received upto 10th of July, or if none are received, to make recommendations sub-moto. The composition of the State Level Committee will be decided by the State Government themselves.

The State level selection committee shall scrutinise the recommendation of the District Committees and recommend to the Central Government at least 10 names of young persons who had shown excellence in one Youth activity or the other. While making the recommendations, the state level selection committee will clearly indicate if any recommendation is made sub-moto or from amongst the names recommended by the District level Committee. The selection Committee in Union Territory Adms. The names of young persons selected by State/UT level Committee shall be arranged in order of merit before they are recommended to the Central Government. Similarly, each State Government/UT Administration will recommend names of two voluntary agencies engaged in youth work arranged in order of merit. The recommendations of the State/UT Selection Committee shall normally be accepted by the State/UT Government. In case any variation is made, full justification for the same will have to be given. The State Government/Union Territory Adms. will forward its recommendations to the Central Government by the 10th of August every year. Particulars of the young persons and voluntary youth organisations should be furnished in proformas given at Annexure I and II respectively.

At the Central level, the National Youth Affairs Committee or a sub-committee of its or a Central Selection Committee will scrutinise recommendations of the State Government/UT Adms. and make selection of youth awards. The Central Selection Committee may, at their discretion, consider, on merits, individuals or youth organisations not recommended by a State Government/Union Territory, for the award.

7 Each of the persons selected for the National Youth Award would be awarded a medal, a scroll and a cash award of Rs. 5,000/- for outstanding youth work. In the case of a voluntary youth organisation, the amount of cash award would be Rs. 1,00,000/-. The award would be announced on the National Youth Day i.e. 12th January every year and will be given away in New Delhi on a convenient date and time. The young persons and the representative of the voluntary agency selected for the award would be given TA/DA by the first class return railfare and arrangements for their stay in Delhi would be made by the Department of Youth Affairs & Sports. As for award to the voluntary Youth organisation, the award/would be given to the Institution.
