ORDER

No.C.14011/1/99-IND, the 20th January, 2009. Whereas a disciplinary proceeding was instituted against Shri R. Ganesan, Superintending Geologist, vide No.C.14011/1/99-IND dt. 2.6.99 for the alleged misconduct of the following 3(three) Article of charges, viz Article-I, that Shri R. Ganesan, while functioning as Superintending Geologist, had passed 4(four) false Bills amounting to Rs 41,950/- for repair of unservisable direct rotary drilling rig, as indicated by Delivery Challans, and he had manipulated the documents to facilitate drawal and misappropriation of submission of false bills, thereby violate Rule 3, Clause (1)(i) and (iii) of CCS(Conduct) Rules, 1964. In the 2nd Article of charges, the charged officer submitted 2(two) false bills amounting to Rs. 4960/- and Rs. 4930/- for repair of Departmental vehicle No ZRG-2565 (Van) which remain unservisable for several years. The bills were later withdrawn when the genuiness of the bills were doubted, thereby the charged officer displayed lack of integrity and conduct unbecoming of Govt. servant, and in violating Rule 3, Clause (I)(ii) and (iii) of CCS(Conduct) Rules, 1964. Finally in the 3rd Article of charges, Mr. R.Ganesan has caused loss to the Department to the tune of Rs. 8,44,300/- by making purchase of incomplete computer hardwares and software. Further, he purchased the items from a firm not recommended by the DPAB. Further, he did not take initiative for proper and timely installation of the computer system for not procuring two software, viz-Spans and Spans cartographer. As a result the computer system remain inoperative and thereby the changed officer has shown lack of devotion to duty and integrity and violated Rule 3 Clause (I)(ii) & (iii) of CCS(Conduct) Rules 1964.

And whereas an inquiry was held on the said allegations and on careful consideration of the Inquiry Report, the Disciplinary Authority imposed upon him a penalty of reduction to a lowest stage in a time scale of pay 4(four) years with cumulative effect, under Rules 11 (v) of CCS(CCA) Rules, 1965 vide No.C.14011/1/99-IND dt. 28.2.2001.

And whereas the said R. Ganesan had preferred an appeal under Part-VII of CCS(CCA) Rules, 1965 for reconsideration of the penalty imposed upon him. After careful consideration of his points of appeal and the Inquiry Report, it is established that the Inquiry Officer did not prove Article-I against the charged Officer. The Inquiry Report clearly indicated that none of the witness examined could give any statement in support of the charge in Article-I. The very mechanic Vanlaltluanga, who checked and received materials, stated that the repair work was done with parts supplied by United Engineering Works. If such repair works was done, it implies that there were mechanical defects which might have rendered direct rotary drilling rig unservisable necessitating its repair to make it servisable. Therefore, the Inquiry Officer held that Article-I is not established. In the second Article of charge, the work order for repair of Van No.ZRG-2565 was prepared by the mechanic in his own hand writing on 12.6.98, and the Appellant has approved it on 25.10.98. Proposal for sanction was put up to the appellant duly vetted by FAO. There was no irregularity in sanctioning the said Bills as the said Bills were put up to the Appellant by the concerned Dealing Assistant through FAO, which is the normal practice. When the Appellant came to know that the bills were not genuine, he had taken corrective step by withdrawing the 2(two) bills in question from Treasury. The Appellant did not commit any irregularity and neither the Govt. suffered any loss on that count. Hence, the question of not maintaining absolute integrity and acting in a manner unbecoming of a Govt. servant as was held by the Inquiry Officer does not arise. Thirdly, the Inquiry Officer did not establish that the Appellant had caused loss of Rs. 8,54,300/- as the Appellant had actually procured computer equipments and software from a firm as was recommended by DPAB. In the meanwhile, the Inquiry Officer held the Appellant responsible for delay in installation of two softwares rendering the computer system inoperative and held the Appellant to have acted in a manner unbecoming of a responsible Govt. servant. On careful consideration of the circumstances which resulted in delay in the installation of hardware & software, there are material evidence to indicate that the Appellant Officer had taken measures for proper installation of the equipments so purchased, and there is no malafide intention on the part of the Appellant is established. Therefore, it is unjust and incorrect to implicate the Appellant that he had deliberately delayed the installation of the system. There are circumstances beyond Appellant's control. Which were also known to the other officers of the Department, including Dr. H. Lallenmawia. Therefore, to single out the Appellant for the delay in installation of the system will not be in the interest of fairness and will amount to travesty of justice and principles of equity.

The Governor of Mizoram, therefore, came to a conclusion that charges against the Appellant have not been convincingly established and the penalty imposed upon the Appellant under Rule 11(v) of CCS(CCA) Rules, 1965 was too severe and not commensurate with the gravity of offence committed by him.

Now, therefore, the Governor of Mizoram, in exercise of the power under Rule 23 and Rule 27 (3) CCS(CCA) Rules, 1965, is pleased to revoke, with immediate effect, the penalty imposed upon the said Shri R. Ganesan, under Rule 11(v) of CCS(CCA) Rules, 1965.

The Governor of Mizoram is further pleased to order that the period of suspension of Shri R. Ganesan from 29.4.99 to 28.2.2001 is to be treated as on duty for all purposes.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Mizoram.

Haukhum Hauzel,
Chief Secretary,
Government of Mizoram.
