BUSINESS: 1. Questions.
2. Any other Govt. Business.

SPEAKER: Question No.26 Pu C.Lalruata's Question.

STARRED QUESTIONS TO WHICH ORAL ANSWERS WERE GIVEN.

PU C.LALRUATA: Mr.Speaker Sir, Will the Hon'ble Minister
i/c of the Administration Department be pleased to state -

(a) What are the reasons for not opening proposed Administrative Sub-Divisions?.

(b) What is the target date for opening and functioning of those
Sub-Divisions?.

(c) Is it a fact that Kolasib Sub-Division has functioned?

PU CH.CHRUNGA: Mr.Speaker, (a) The proposed Administrative CHIEF MINISTER. Subdivisions could not yet be opened for the following reasons -

(i) All the necessary posts for the proposed Subdivisions cannot be created/sanctioned due to "Ban" imposed by Government of India on creation of posts.

(ii) The boundaries of these proposed Subdivision have not yet been notified.

(b) No specific date has been fixed for opening and functioning of these new Subdivisions.

(c) It is not a fact Kolasib Subdivision has started functioning.

PU C.LALRUATA: Mr.Speaker, supplementary question: When was the proposal for the opening of new Subdivision
made? and when was Financial 'Ban' started?

PU CH.CHRUNGA: Mr.Speaker, the date on which government of CHIEF MINISTER. India agreed to our proposal was on 21.4.85.
But, unfortunately, Financial 'Ban' started before we make proper classification of the boundaries and notification.

PU SANGKHUMA: Mr.Speaker, supplementary question: What were our weaknesses and difficulties for not being able to make an appointment for just a number of staff within that six months i.e. before financial 'Ban' started? I find no reason not to make an appointment before, classification of its areas. I don't think there is any wrong in appointing few staffs before notification is made.
