Honourable Members will recall that in the address to this august House on 15th March, 2000, it had been mentioned that the priorities of my Government have been set and that the groundwork has been laid for a number of development projects which collectively have the potential of transforming the economy of Mizoram. I am happy to note that we have been making steady progress in implementing these developmental projects. I am confident that efforts will be intensified for further accelerated progress in these endeavours for sustained development and poverty alleviation.
