*PU SAINGHAKA, : Pu Speaker, Pi Indira Gandhi thih
MINISTER chungchang thuah sawi tur tlem ka nei a. Chu chu kan sawi ang e :-

Shrimati Indira Gandhi, daughter of Jawaharlal Nehru was born on November, 19, 1917 at Allahabad, U.P. She was educated at Allahabad, Switzerland, Poona, Bombay, Santiniketan Visva-Bharati and Somerville College, Oxford.

She was brought up under the atmosphere of Political unrest during which her father and grand father were frequently harassed by the Police. She was impressed by her reading of Joan of Arc.

She organised Charka Sangh and Vanar Sena while aged 12, was active in student movements in England and India; took part in activities of Indian League, London;
became member of Congress in 1931, and was actively associated with freedom struggle.

She was married to late Feroz Gandhi at 21, borne two sons. Courted imprisonment with her husband during Quit India Movement in 1942, she spent 13 months in prison without trial; worked under Mahatma Gandhi's direction in riot-affected areas of Delhi in 1947 was Nehru's hostess and later his close political aids from 1957-1964, accompanied Nehru on his visit to several countries, visiting several African countries on her own; became member of Congress working Committee in 1955; Chairwoman, Womens' Department of the Congress;
member of Central Election Board and of Youth Advisory Board of the A.I.C.C. elected President of Congress; in February, 1959; in 1960 elected to Lok Sabha seat (M.P) from Rae-Bareilly Constituency; Minister for Information and Broadcasting, Government of India in 1964-66; elected to Rajya Sabha in 1964.

...7/-

Elected Leader of Congress Parliamentary Party in 1966, became the Third Prime Minister of India; member of Lok Sabha in 1966-76, 67-77, and again in November, 1978; elected to Seventh Lok Sabha in 1980; again became Prime Minister of India since January, 1980; she was associated with a large number of organisations and institutions; President, Board of Trustees of Kamala Nehru Memorial Hospital. Trustee Gandhi Smarak Nidhi, K.G. Memorial Trust; Chancellor of Vishwa Bharati, JNU and North-Eastern Hill University (1966-67); awarded Doctorate (Honoris Causa) by Andhra, Arge, Bangalore, Vikram, El Salvador (Buenos Aires), Waseda (Tokyo), Moscow, Oxford, Charles (Prague) Punjab, Gurukul, Nagpur, Jamia Urdu and Poona Universities; Citation of Distinction by Columbia University; Recipient of Bharat Ratna, 71 Mothers' Award of U.S.A., Isbellad Este award of Italy, etc; published, The years of challenge 1966-69; The years of Endeavour 1969-72. She was declared as greatest women in the world in gall-op Poll of USA held in 1971.

She abolished privy purses of former Kings and Princes; Nationalised 14 (fourteen) Commercial Banks for the relief of the poor; in 1982 Asian Games, she obtained the honour of Gold Medal from International Olympic Committee; she pivoted the Non-Aligned Movement to ensure peace and harmony in the world, and Chairperson of Non-Alligned Movement which post she held till her death.

She was assassinated by her own bodyguards at TEEN MURTI HOUSE NO.1, Safdarjung Road, New Delhi at around 9:15 A.M. on October, 31, 1984 immediately rushed to the All India Institute of Medical Sciences; doctors battled for hours to save her life; all efforts proved futile and the soul departed; immortality has seized the soul of the world's greatest leader; died at about 2:30 P.M. the same day.

She visited Aizawl in the year 1952 with her father and in 1958 as Chairwoman of Social Welfare Board; inaugurated U.T. Mizoram in 1972; visited Mizoram again for election campaign in 1977 and 1984.

She had a soft corner in her heart for the tribal people; we are all aware of her efforts to bring about political settlement in Mizoram; she brought Mr. Laldenga to Delhi for resumption of talks for political settlement of our problems. Her untimely death at this very critical juncture is a cruel blow to Mizoram, Thank you.
