An eminent trade union leader, Mr. Kedar Pande was born into a Brahmin family of wealthy farmer at Banla in Chaparan District of Bihar in June 1920. He matriculated from Bettiah High School in 1937 and was sentenced to prison for five years of participation in the 1942 Quit India Movement released after 11 months, Pande did his M.Sc. in Mathematics in Banaras Hindu University in 1944, followed by law degree in next year.

Mr. Pande practised in the District Court of Motihari and Bettiah from 1945 to 1948 and was an Advocate at Patna High Court in 1949. About this time he made an unostentatious entry into politics, winning the blessing of both Shri Krishna Sinha and Anugraha Naryan Sinha. From a small time labour leader whose influence was limited to Sugar Factories, Mr. Pande became the key man in the Indian National Sugar Mill Workers' Federation and Vice President of the Indian National Trade Union Congress in 1948. For some time he was General Secretary of the Bihar Fourth Grade Employees Union.

In 1952, Mr. Pande was elected to the Bihar Assembly from Bagala in Champara District. Except in 1962, when he lost the Natan seat by a narrow margin to Mr. Narain Vikran Shah, Mr. Pande remained a member of the Assembly until January, 1980 when he was elected to the Lok Sabha from Bettiah. Mr. Pande became a Deputy Minister in the Shri Krishna Sinha Ministry in 1957. He was the Industries Minister in the Coalition Ministry headed by Harihar Singh -

In April 1972, the Prime Minister nominated Mr. Pande leader of the Congress (I) Legislature Party in Bihar in June, 1973 he was voted out as C.P. leader and resigned in his Chief Ministership.

President of Bihar Congress (I) from 1977 to 1979 (when he was arrested twice) Mr. Pande became the Union Minister for Irrigation in June 1980. He took charge of Railways in November and came back to Irrigation in September 1982. Mrs Pande was dropped from the Cabinet during the reshuffle in January.
