2. BOUNDARY DESCRIPTION OF SERKAWN VILLAGE

Starting point : North : The boundary starts at a point between Chhimhruta's house and Lahming-jiana's house, and thence follows down a rivulet towards the east and catches Lamhrat Tuikhurlui. Following the Tuikhur Lui it turns southwards below Serkawn in the eastern side, and contains Melte within it and reaches a point Chawlhmun. From Chawlhmun it goes on the precipice of Saikhalh kham and follows the erstwhile boundary of Zotlang and Zohnuai villages.

Following the cliff southwards, the line goes on above Thanghuta's Garden and meets a precipice at the Pawih Luikawr gorge which used to be the boundary between villages of Theiriat and Lunglawn. It then goes along the precipice and catches a rivulet below the Sethlun Grave-yard. Following the said rivulet upwards and towards the east it goes on near Pu Buangthanga's Garden and crosses the approach road to Theiriat. Thence the boundary goes through a narrow pass between two spurs of hill upwards a rivulet flowing between Pu Buangthanga's and Pu Thangzuala's Gardens towards the north. Thence the boundary goes along Pu R. K. Buaia's garden and crosses Muatzen Kawng Road. From there it goes towards the Sipai Tuikhur water point below Pu R. Lianchhawna's and Pu Lawmzuala's Gardens till it reaches the Sipai Tuikhur. From the Sipai Tuikhur it goes straight and meets the starting point at the 18 A. R. Gate.
