21. (1) There shall be levied and collected at such rates and in such manner as may be prescribed, not exceeding the rates set forth in Part A of the First Schedule appended to this Act, a duty of excise on any excisable article manufactured in or brought into the Union territory.

Levy of duty.

(2) The Administrator may, by notification, levy a countervailing duty on any excisable article manufactured or produced elsewhere in India and imported into the Union territory at such rates as may be specified in the notification, which shall not exceed the rates of duty on similar excisable articles levied under sub-section (1).

(3) Different rates may be specified under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) for different kinds of excisable articles according to the places to which excisable articles are to be removed for consumption, or according to the strength and quality of any such article or for different modes of levying duties under section 22.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any article which has been imported into India and was liable, on such importation, to duty under the Customs Act, 1962. Central Act 52 of 1962.

22. Subject to such rules regulating the time, place and manner of the levy and collection of duty, as may be prescribed, any duty imposed under section 21 may be levied — Mode of levy of duty.

- (a) in the case of excisable articles imported —
 - (i) either into the territory to which this Act applies ; or
 - (ii) upon issue for sale from a warehouse established or licensed under clause (d) of section 16 ;
- (b) in the case of excisable articles exported from the territory to which this Act applies ;
- (c) in the case of excisable articles transported —
 - (i) in the district from which the excisable article is transported ; or
 - (ii) upon issue for sale from a warehouse established under clause (d) of section 16 ;
- (d) in the case of intoxicating drugs —
 - (i) at a rate assessed on the area covered by a licence granted under the provisions of clause (b) of section 15, or on the quantity or out-turn of the crop, cultivated or collected under such licence; or
 - (ii) at a rate charged upon a quantity produced or manufactured under a licence granted under the provisions of clause (a) of section 15, or issued from a warehouse established or licensed under clause (d) of section 16 ;
- (e) in the case of spirit or beer manufactured in any distillery or brewery established or licensed under section 16 —
 - (i) at a rate charged upon the quantity produced in or issued from the distillery or brewery, as the case may be, or issued from a warehouse established or licensed under clause (d) of section 16, or
 - (ii) at a rate charged in accordance with such scale or equivalents calculated on the quantity of materials used or by the degree of attenuation of the wash of wort, as the case may be, as the Administrator may prescribe :

Provided that, where payment is made upon the issue of an excisable article for sale from a warehouse established or licensed under clause (d) of section 16, it shall be at the rate of duty in force in respect of such article on the date of issue from such warehouse.

23. Instead of or in addition to any duty leviable under this Chapter, the Administrator may accept payment of a sum not exceeding twenty-five thousand rupees in consideration of the grant of any exclusive privilege under section 19.

Payment for
exclusive privilege.

CHAPTER VI

Licences, Permits and Passes.

24. Every licence, permit or pass under this Act shall be granted,—
- (a) by such officer;
 - (b) for such period;
 - (c) subject to such conditions or restrictions; and
 - (d) in such form and in such particulars,
- as may be prescribed:
- Provided that a licence shall be granted on payment of the fees specified in Part B of the First Schedule appended to this Act:
- Provided further that no fee shall be charged for any permit granted under section 17 for the possession of an intoxicant for bona fide private consumption or use or for any pass granted under this Act.
25. Every person taking out a licence under this Act may be required to execute an agreement in conformity with the tenor of his licence, and to give such security, by way of desposit or otherwise, for the performance of his agreement as the authority granting the licence may require.
26. No licence granted under this Act shall be deemed to be invalid by reason merely of any technical defect, irregularity or omission in the licence, or any proceedings taken prior to the grant thereof.
27. Before licences are granted, in any year for the retail sale of any intoxicant the Collector shall take such measures, in such manner as may be prescribed, as may best enable him to ascertain local public opinion in regard to the licensing and location of shops.
28. (1) Subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed, the authority which granted any licence, permit or pass under this Act, may cancel or suspend the same—
- (a) if any duty or fee payable by the holder thereof be not duly paid; or
 - (b) in the event of any breach by the holder thereof or by his servants, or by any one acting on his behalf, with his express or implied permission, of any of the terms or conditions of such licence, permit or pass; or
 - (c) if the holder thereof is convicted of any offence punishable under this Act or any other law for the time being in force relating to revenue, or of any cognizable and non-bailable offence or of any offence punishable under the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1930 or under sections 482 to 489 of the Indian Penal Code; or
 - (d) if the holder thereof is convicted of any offence punishable under section 112 or section 114 of the Customs Act, 1962; or other cases.
 - (e) at will, if the conditions of the licence, permit or pass provided for such cancellation or suspension.

(a) on the expiration of fifteen days' notice in writing of its intention to do so, or

(b) forthwith without notice :

Provided that no licence under this sub-section shall be cancelled except after giving the holder thereof a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed action.

(2) If any licence be cancelled under clause (b) of sub-section (1), the aforesaid authority shall, in addition to remitting such sum as aforesaid, pay to the licensee such further sum by way of compensation as the Excise Commissioner may direct.

(3) When a licence is cancelled under this section, any fee paid in advance or deposit made by the licensee in respect thereof shall be refunded to him, less the amount if any, due to Government.

30. Any holder of a licence granted under this Act to sell an intoxicant may surrender his licence on the expiration of one month's notice in writing given by him to the Collector of his intention to surrender the same and on payment of the fee payable for the licence for the whole period for which it would have been current but for such surrender :

Surrender of licence.

Provided that, if the Excise Commissioner is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for surrendering a licence, he may remit to the holder thereof the sum so payable on surrender and any fee paid in advance or any portion of such sum or fee :

Provided further that nothing in this section shall apply in the case of a licence held by the grantee of an exclusive privilege under section 19.

31. No person to whom a licence has been granted under this Act shall have any claim to the renewal of such licence, or, save as is provided in section 29, any claim to compensation on the determination thereof.

No right to renewal.

(3) If the conviction is set aside on appeal or otherwise, the bond so executed shall become void.

(4) An order under this section may also be made by an Appellate Court, or by the High Court when exercising its powers of revision.

64. (1) No Magistrate shall take cognizance of an offence punishable — Initiation of prosecution:

(a) under section 48, section 49, section 50 or section 56, except on his own knowledge or suspicion, or on the complaint or report of an Excise Officer ;

(b) under section 51, section 52, section 53, or section 59, except on the complaint or report of a Collector or other officer empowered under sub-section (2) of section 37 to investigate the case, or

(c) under clause (d) of section 57, except with the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner.

(2) Except with the special sanction of the Administrator, no Magistrate shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act, unless the prosecution is instituted within six months after the commission of the offence.

65. No court inferior to that of the court of a Magistrate of the second class shall try any offence punishable under this Act. Jurisdiction of courts.

66. (1) When, in any prosecution under this Act or in any proceedings taken under sub-section (3) of Section 70, the question arises whether an offence punishable under this Act has been committed in respect of :— Presumption.

(a) any intoxicant or hemp plant (Cannabis Sativa L) ;

(b) any still, utensil, implement or apparatus whatsoever for the manufacture of any intoxicant ; or

(c) any materials such as are ordinarily used in the manufacture of any intoxicant, if the person found in possession thereof fails to account satisfactorily for such possession, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that his possession was in contravention of the provisions of this Act.

(2) When, in any prosecution under section 53, any licensed vendor is charged with permitting drunkenness or intoxication in his shop or in any public room of his business premises, and it is proved that any person was drunk or intoxicated in such shop or room, it shall lie on such vendor to prove that he and the persons employed by him took all reasonable steps for preventing drunkenness or intoxication in such shop or room.

67. In prosecutions under section 50, when the accused person is proved to have been in possession of any spirit which is, or contains, or has been derived from, denatured spirit, and in respect of which any such alteration or attempt as is referred to in section 50 has been made, it may, from the mere fact of such possession, be presumed unless and until the contrary is proved, that such person —

Presumption as to offence under section 50 in certain cases.

- (i) has himself made such alteration or attempt; or
- (ii) knows or has reason to believe that such alteration or attempt has been made.

68. In any prosecution under this Act, it may be presumed unless and until the contrary is proved, that any spirit which contains any quantity of any denaturant is or has been derived from denatured spirit.

Presumption as to any spirit which contains any denaturant.

69. Whenever an offence punishable under this Act has been committed, the following things shall be liable to confiscation, namely Liability to confiscation.

- (a) the intoxicant, hemp plant (Cannabis Sativa L), still, utensil, implement, apparatus or materials in respect of or by means of which such offence has been committed;
- (b) any intoxicant lawfully imported, transported, manufactured and held in possession or sold along with any intoxicant liable to confiscation as aforesaid;
- (c) the receptacles, packages, and coverings, in which anything liable to confiscation under clause (a) or clause (b) is found and the other contents, if any, of such receptacles and packages, and
- (d) the animals, carts, vessels, rafts or other conveyances used in carrying anything referred to in the foregoing clauses:

Provided that when it is proved that the receptacles or other articles specified in clause (c) or clause (d) are not the property of the offender, the said articles shall not be liable to confiscation if the owner thereof establishes that he had no reason to believe that such offence was being or was likely to be committed.

70. (1) When, in any case tried by a Magistrate, the Magistrate decides that anything is liable to confiscation under section 69, he shall order such thing to be confiscated and placed at the disposal of the Collector.

Procedure in regard to articles liable to confiscation.

(2) When, in any other case in which anything has been seized under this Act, an investigating officer proceeds under sub-section (2) of section 38, or the Collector, upon an investigation made, whether by the Collector or other officer under section 37 is of opinion that the thing seized is not liable to confiscation under section 69, such investigating officer or the Collector, as the case may be, shall order the delivery of such thing to the person from whose possession it was taken.

(3) When, upon an investigation made as aforesaid, it appears to the Collector that an offence under this Act has been committed, and that anything seized under this Act is liable to confiscation and it further appears that the offender is not known or cannot be found, the Collector shall inquire into and determine the case and, if he finds that the thing is liable to confiscation under section 69 shall order such confiscation :

Provided that no such order shall be made until the expiration of two months from the date of seizing the thing intended to be confiscated or without hearing any person who may appear within that period and claim any right to such thing, and evidence if any, which he produces in support of his claim :

Provided further, that if the thing in question is liable to speedy and natural decay, or if the Collector is of opinion that its sale would be for the benefit of the owner, the Collector may at any time direct it to be sold ; and the provisions of this sub-section and of sub-section (2) shall, as nearly as may be practicable, apply to the net proceeds of such sale.

71. (1) (a) When any licence, permit or pass granted under this Act is liable to be cancelled or suspended under clause (a) or clause Power to compound offence.

(b) of sub-section (1) of section 28, or when any person is reasonably suspected of having committed an offence under this Act, other than an offence under section 57, the Excise Commissioner or a Collector, instead of enforcing such cancellation or suspension or instituting a prosecution in respect of such offence, may accept from the holder of such licence, permit or pass or from such person a sum of money not exceeding five hundred rupees, and thereupon such holder or person, if in custody, shall be discharged, and no further proceedings in respect of such liability or offence shall be taken against him,

(b) if in any such case referred to in clause (a) any property has been seized as liable to confiscation under this Act, the Excise Commissioner or the Collector may release the same on receiving payment of the value thereof as estimated by him, or of such smaller sum as he may think fit.

(2) The Excise Commissioner or Collector may also, after the institution against any person of a prosecution in respect of any offence under this Act other than an offence under section 57, compound the offence on payment by such person, of a sum of money not exceeding five hundred rupees.

CHAPTER IX
General Provisions

72. Every person who manufactures or sells any intoxicant under a licence granted under this Act — Measures, weights and instruments.

(a) shall supply himself with such measures, weights and instruments as may be prescribed, and shall keep the same in good condition ; and

(b) on the requisition of any Excise Officer duly empowered in that behalf, shall, at any time, measure, weigh or test any intoxicant in his possession in such manner as such officer may require.

73. If any person to whom an exclusive privilege has been granted under section 19, or any holder of a licence granted under this Act makes default in payment of any sum payable in respect of such privilege or licence or in complying with any other condition thereof, the Collector may, after giving such person a reasonable opportunity of making representation in the matter, take under management such privilege or the grant expressed in such licence or may re-sell such privilege or grant at the risk and loss of the defaulter. Departmental management and resale.

74. All excise revenue, including any loss that may accrue when, in consequence of default, a privilege or grant has been taken under management or resold by the Collector under section 73, and all amounts due to the Government by any person on account of any contract relating to the excise revenue, may be recovered from the person primarily liable to pay the same or from his surety, if any, by distress and sale of his moveable property, or as arrears of land revenue, or in the manner provided for the recovery of public demands by any law for the time being in force. Recovery of dues.

75. (1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, or was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly: Offences by companies.

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment under this Act if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to, any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.— For the purpose of this section,—

- (v) the specification of the persons or classes of persons to whom any intoxicant may or may not be sold ;
- (vi) the prohibition of sale except for cash ;
- (vii) the prevention of drunkenness, intoxication, gambling or disorderly conduct in or near the business premises of the holder of the licence and of the meeting or remaining of persons of bad character in such premises ;
- (viii) the fixing of the days and hours during which such premises may or may not be kept open, and the closure of such premises on special occasions ;
- (ix) the specification of the nature of the premises in which any intoxicant may be sold and the notices to be exhibited at such premises ,
- (x) the accounts to be maintained and the returns to be submitted by holders of licences ; and
- (xi) regulating or prohibiting the transfer of licences ;
- (l) (i) declaring the process by which spirit manufactured in India shall be denatured ;
- (ii) for causing such spirit to be denatured through the agency or under the supervision of its own officers ;
- (iii) for ascertaining whether such spirit has been denatured ;
- (m) providing for the destruction or other disposal of any intoxicant deemed to be unfit for use ;
- (n) regulating the disposal of confiscated articles ;
- (o) providing for the grant of expenses to witnesses ;
- (p) regulating the power of an Excise Officer to summon witnesses under the provisions of section 38 ;
- (q) providing for the grant of compensation to persons improperly arrested and subsequently released by any Excise Officer under section 38, and persons charged before a Magistrate with offences under this Act and acquitted ;
- (r) providing for any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed.

(3) Every rule made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the Legislative Assembly of Mizoram while it is in session for a total period of seven days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions; and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the sessions immediately following, the Legislative Assembly of Mizoram makes any modification in the rule or decides that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

77. Until any law relating to the interpretation of statutes is made by the Legislative Assembly of Mizoram, the Assam General Clauses Act, 1915 shall apply to the interpretation of this Act as it applies to the interpretation of an Assam Act. Application of Assam Act 2 of 1915.
