No.A.19036/1/83-FST. the 24th May 1988. Whereas the posts of Assistant Conservator of Forest were filled up cent-per-cent by direct recruits during 1975-1983 without observance of provisions of roster in the approved Recruitment Rules causing undue delay for eligible Rangers in appointment to the post of Assistant Conservator of Forest on Promotion.

And whereas having been placed the above mentioned anomalies before them, the Review DPC in its meeting held on 10.4.1986 is of the opinion that there has been some bonafied mistake in the filling up of the posts of Assistant Conservator of Forest during the aforementioned period and the mistake being found unintentional recommended that the inter-se-seniority between direct recruits and promotees should be arranged keeping in mind the principle of roster and notified

Now therefore, in pursuance of the Review DPC recommendation, the Governor of Mizoram is pleased to order that the date of appointment of the following officers to the post of Assistant Conservator of Forest shall be reckoned with effect from the dates shown against each for the purpose of seniority and fixation of pay in the grade of A.C.F. but no arrear accumulation during the intervening period will be permissible.
