This is necessary only in districts where personal Accident Insurance Social Security Scheme (PASS) is not in force. In districts where PASS (already set up) can also be advised to oversee the Hut Insurance Scheme.

ix) STATE LEVEL CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEES

To oversee the operations of the Scheme in the Districts, State Level Consultative Committee will be constituted. The State Level Consultative Committee would consist of representatives of the designated insurance companies one of whom shall be the Convenor, and the State Government representatives who could be Home Secretary, Revenue Secretary, Secretary Rural Development and Social Welfare. The State Consultative Committees may meet at least once a year. The Chairman of the State Level Consultative Committee will be as decided by the State Government. Where State Level Consultative Committee is already constituted for PASS, the same Committee can be advised to oversee Hut Insurance Scheme as well.

IV. ROLE OF STATE GOVERNMENTS

The State Government will have the overall responsibility to notify Claims Enquiry-cum-Settlement Officers therefor in districts where Personal Accident Insurance Social Security Scheme (PASS) is not in force. In districts where PASS is already in force, CESOs already notified under PASS may be advised to look after Hut Insurance Scheme as well, for receiving applications, settling claims etc. The State Government will also nominate their representatives to the State Level and District Level Consultative Committees. State Governments shall also widely publicise the Scheme in interior rural areas through the various publicity media under their control. While the premium for the scheme will be paid entirely by the Central Government the administrative costs incurred by the State Governments for implementing the Scheme in their territories will be borne by State Governments themselves.

V. ROLE OF G.I.C./SUBSIDIARIES

The GIC will designate insurance companies as under and will have the overall responsibility for the administration of the Scheme :—
