- (vi) If the petition is on the ground of cruelty, the specific acts of cruelty and the occasion when and the place where such acts were committed;

- (vii) If the petition is on the ground of unsoundness of mind or mental disorder, the time when such unsoundness of mind or mental disorder began to manifest itself and the nature and the period of the curative steps taken;
- (viii) If the petition is on the ground of venereal disease in a communicable form or leprosy, when such ailment began to manifest itself and the nature and the period of the curative steps taken;
- (ix) If the petition is on the ground specified in clause (h) of section 27 of the Act, the date and the place where the respondent was last seen or heard of alive and the steps, if any taken, to ascertain his or her where about;
- (x) If the petition is founded on the ground of bestiality, the occasion when, the place where and the particulars of the beast with whom the husband had been guilty of bestiality;
- (xi) If the petition is for divorce under section 27 (IA)(II) of the Act, the particulars of this decree under section 18 of the Hindu Adoptions and Maintenance Act, 1956 or of order under section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (or under the corresponding section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898) together with an affidavit that since the passing of such decree or order, habitation between the parties had not been resumed for one year or upwards;
- (xii) If the petition is under section 28 of the Act, the date since when the parties have been living separately and whether, or not they have been able to live together and whether the mutual agreement dissolving the marriage is verbal or evidenced by a document in writing.
- (h) Every petition under Chapter V or Chapter VI of the act shall state that there is no collusion between the petitioner and the other party to the marriage.
 - (i) The claim for damages, if any, with particulars.
 - (j) The relief or reliefs prayed for

8. AFFIDAVIT OF NON-COLLUSION :—

Every petition under Chapter V or VI of the Act shall be accompanied by an affidavit to the effect that it is not presented in collusion with the respondent. If the petition is founded on the ground specified in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 27, it will also state that the petitioner has not in any manner been accessory to or connived at the act or acts of sexual intercourse complained of.

9. AFFIDAVIT OF NON-CONDONATION :

Where the petition is founded on the ground specified in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 27 of the Act or where the ground of the petition is cruelty, the petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit to the effect that the petitioner has not condoned that act or acts complained of or has not in any manner condoned the cruelty.

10. AFFIDAVIT IN THE PETITION ON THE GROUND OF MUTUAL CONSENT :—

Where divorce is sought on the ground of mutual consent, the petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit to the effect that such consent has not been obtained by force, fraud or under influence.

11. AFFIDAVIT OF NON-CO-HABITATION:—

Every petition under section 27 (2) (1) shall be accompanied by an affidavit made by the petitioner that there has been no resumption of cohabitation as between the parties to the marriage for a period of one year or upward after the passing of a decree for judicial separation in a proceeding to which they were parties.

12. AFFIDAVIT OF NON-RESTITUTION OF CONJUGAL RIGHTS :—

Every petition under section 72 (2) (ii) shall be accompanied by an Affidavit made by the petitioner of the facts that there was been no restitution of conjugal rights as between the parties to the marriage for a period of one year or upwards after the passing of a decree for restitution of conjugal rights in a proceeding to which they were parties.

13. NECESSARY PARTIES:—

- (a) In every petition for divorce/judicial separation on the ground that the respondent has, after the solemnization of the marriage, had voluntary sexual intercourse with any person other than his or her spouse, the petitioner shall make the alleged adulterer or adulteress a co-respondent to the petition. The petitioner may, however, apply to the court on application supported by an affidavit, for leave to dispense with the joinder of such person as a co-respondent on any of the following grounds:—
 - (i) That the name of such person is unknown to the petitioner although he/she has made due efforts for discovery;
 - (ii) That such person is dead;
 - (iii) that the respondent being the wife is leading a life of a prostitute and that the petitioner knows of no person with whom voluntary sexual intercourse has been committed, or
 - (iv) any other reason that the Court considers sufficient.
- (b) In every petition under section 24 of the Act on the ground that the condition specified in clause (a) of section 4 has not been fulfilled, the petitioner shall make the spouse, alleged to be living at the time of marriage, a co-respondent.

14. APPLICATION FOR LEAVE UNDER SECTION 29 OF THE ACT :—

- (1) In support of an application for leave under section 29 of the Act there shall be filed an affidavit by the applicant stating the grounds on which the application is made, particulars of the exceptional hardship or exceptional depravity alleged, whether there has been any previous. Application under the said section, whether there are living any children of the marriage and if so, the names and dates of birth or ages of such children, their sex, where and with whom they are residing, whether any and if so, what attempts at reconciliation have been made and any circumstances which may assist the court to determine the question whether there is reasonable probability of reconciliation between the parties.

- (2) Notice of the application shall be given to the respondent who may contest the same by filing affidavit in opposition.
- (3) In exceptional circumstances the court may, if necessary order a deponent to be cross-examined on his or her affidavit.
- (4) The application shall be accompanied by the petition intended to be filed.
- (5) When the court grants leave, the petition shall be deemed to have been duly filed on the date of the said order provided proper court fee thereon is paid within the time allowed by the court.

15. NOTICES :-

The court shall issue notice in form "A" accompanied by a Copy of petition to the respondent and the co-respondent, if any. The notice shall require, unless the court otherwise directs, the respondent or co-respondent to file his or her written statement in court on or before the date fixed in the notice.

16. COUNTER CLAIM:-

Where a counter-claim is made in terms of section 23-A it shall comply with the Rules applicable to petitions on the like grounds.

17. DAMAGES AND COSTS AGAINST CO-RESPONDENT:-

(1) Whenever in any petition presented by a husband, the person alleged to have committed adultery has been made a co-respondent and the charge of adultery has been established, the court may order the co-respondent to pay the whole or any part of the costs of the proceedings.

Provided that the co-respondent shall not be ordered to pay the petitioners costs:-

- (a) if the respondent was, at the time of adultery, living apart from her husband and was leading the life of a prostitute; or
- (b) if the co-respondent had not, at the time of voluntary sexual intercourse, reason to believe the respondent to be a married woman.

(2) The award of costs shall be in the discretion of the court and the court shall make an order of the same while passing decree.

(4) The court may assess damages and make an order for payment thereof or of costs notwithstanding that the respondent or the co-respondent or both of them have remain ex-parte.

Every application for maintenance pendente-lite, permanent alimony and maintenance or for custody, maintenance and education expenses of minor children shall be supported by an affidavit and shall state the average monthly income of the petitioner and the respondent, the sources of their income, particulars of other movable and imovable property owned by them jointly or severally, the details of their liabilities, if any, alongwith the number of their dependents, if any, and the names and ages of such dependents.

(1) In every case where a marriage is dissolved by a decree or divorce, the court passing the decree shall give a copy thereof free of cost to each of the parties. The copy to be supplied shall be authenticated as "true copy" by the court passing the decree.
