CHAPTER II

MANAGEMENT OF COAL MINES

3. (1) On and from the appointed day, the management of all coal mines shall vest in the Central Government. Management of coal mines to vest in the Central Govern-

(2) The coal mines specified in the Schedule shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Ordinance, to be the coal mines the management of which shall vest, under sub section (1), in the Central Government : ment of the appointed day.

Provided that if, after the appointed day, any other mine is found after an investigation, to contain coal, the Central Government shall make declaration to that effect and on and from the date of such declaration—

(i) the management of such mine shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Ordinance, to vest in the Central Government ; and

(ii) such coal mine shall be deemed to be included in the Schedule, and thereupon the provisions of this Ordinance shall become applicable thereto subject to the modification that for the words "appointed day" wherever they occur, the words, brackets and figures "the date of the declaration made by the Central Government under sub section (2) of section 3" shall be substituted.

(3) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that the Schedule includes those coal mines in relation to which the declaration made by the Coal Board to the effect that they contain coking coals is in dispute.

Management of coal mines pending the appointment of Custodian

4. (1) Pending the appointment of a Custodian under section 5 for any coal mine, the person in charge of the management of such mine immediately before the appointed day shall on and from the appointed day, be in charge of the management of such mine for and on behalf of the Central Government; and the management of such mine shall be carried on by such person subject to the provisions contained in sub-sections (3) and (5) and such directions, if any, as the Central Government may give to him and no other person, including the owner, shall, so long as such management continues, exercise any powers of management in relation to the coal mine or give any direction with regard to such management.

(2) Any contract, whether express or implied, providing for the management of any coal mine, made before the appointed day between the owner of such mine and any person in charge of the management of such mine immediately before the appointed day, shall be deemed to have terminated on the appointed day.

(3) No person in charge of the management of a coal mine shall, without the previous approval of the person specified by the Central Government in this behalf in respect of that mine (hereinafter referred to as the "authorised person"),—

(a) incur any expenditure from the assets appertaining to the coal mine otherwise than for the purpose of making routine payments of salaries or commissions to employees, agents or for the purpose of meeting the routine day to day expenditure;

(b) transfer or otherwise dispose of any such assets or create any charge, hypothecation, lien or other incumbrance thereon;

(c) invest in any manner any monies forming part of such assets;

(d) acquire any immovable property out of the monies forming part of such assets;

(e) enter into any contract of service or agency, whether expressly or by implication, for purposes connected wholly or partly with the coal mine or vary the terms and conditions of any such contract subsisting on the appointed day;

(f) enter into any other transaction relating to the business of the coal mine or vary the terms of any agreement relating to such business subsisting at the commencement of this Ordinance.

(4) The approval of the authorised person may be given either generally in relation to certain classes of transactions relating to the coal mine or specially in relation to any of its transactions.

(5) Every person in charge of the management of a coal mine shall deposit all securities and documents of title to any assets appertaining to such mine in any Scheduled Bank or Nationalised Bank in which the owner or agent had an account immediately before the appointed day or in any branch of the State Bank in the place where the head office or the principal office of the coal mine is situated or where there is no branch of the State Bank in such place the nearest branch of the State Bank; and no such security or document shall be withdrawn from the Scheduled Bank, the Nationalised Bank or the State Bank, as the case may be, except with the permission of the authorised person:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any security or document of title kept in trust with an Official Trustee in pursuance of the articles of association of any mining company unless the Central Government, by notified order, otherwise directs.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, —

(a) "Scheduled Bank" means a bank included for the time being in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934;

(b) "State Bank" means the State Bank of India constituted under the State Bank of India Act, 1955;

(c) "Nationalised Bank" means a corresponding new Bank as defined in the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970.

(6) Every person in charge of the management of a coal mine shall deliver forthwith to the person specified in this behalf by the Central Government in respect of that coal mine the following documents, namely:—

(a) the minutes book or any other book in India containing all resolutions, up to the appointed day of the persons in charge of the management of the coal mine before the appointed day;

(b) the current cheque books relating to the coal mine which are at the head office or the principal office of the coal mine;

(c) all registers or other books containing particulars relating to the investment of any monies appertaining to the coal mine including investments on mortgaged properties and all loans granted or advances made.

(7) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) and the provisions contained in sub-sections (3), (5) and (6), any directions issued under sub-section (1) may require the persons in charge of the management of a coal mine under this Ordinance to furnish to the Central Government or to the authorised person such returns, statements and other information relating to the coal mine as may be mentioned in the direction.

(8) The persons in charge of the management of the coal mine under this Ordinance shall be entitled to such remuneration, whether by way of allowance or salary or perquisites as the Central Government may fix; and any such person may by giving one month's notice in writing to the Central Government of his intention so to do, relinquish charge of the management of the coal mine.

5. (1) The Central Government may, as soon as it is convenient administratively so to do, appoint any person as Custodian for the purpose of taking over the management of one or more coal mines and the person so appointed shall carry on the management of such mines for and on behalf of the Central Government.

Power of Central Go-
appoint Custodian

(2) (a) The Central Government may also appoint a person (including a Government company, whether in existence at the commencement of this Ordinance or incorporated thereafter), as the Custodian-General for exercising supervision and control over all the coal mines the management of which is taken over under this Ordinance and on such appointment, every Custodian, appointed under sub section (1), shall act under the guidance, control and supervision of the Custodian-General.

(b) The Central Government may also appoint one or more persons as Additional Custodian-General or Deputy Custodian-General for assisting the Custodian-General in the exercise of his powers and duties under this Ordinance and the Custodian-General may delegate all or such of his powers as he may think fit to the Additional or Deputy Custodian General.

(c) Every Additional or Deputy Custodian-General shall exercise the powers delegated to him under the control and supervision of the Custodian-General.

(3) On the appointment of a Custodian under sub section (1), the charge of management of the coal mine shall vest in him and all persons in charge of the management of such mine immediately before such appointment shall cease to be in charge of such management and shall be bound to deliver to the Custodian all assets, books of account, registers or other documents in their custody relating to the coal mine, and any contract, whether express or implied, providing for the management of such coal mine, made before the appointed day between the owner of such mine and every such person, shall be deemed to have terminated on the date on which the Custodian is appointed.

(4) Notwithstanding any judgment, decree or order of any Court or any thing contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Official Liquidator or any Receiver appointed by any Court or any other person, in whose possession, custody or control any mine specified in the Schedule or any part thereof may be, shall forthwith deliver possession of the mine or such part thereof, as the case may be to the Custodian.

(5) The Official Liquidator, Receiver or any other person who has, on the appointed day, in his possession, custody or control any books, documents or other papers relating to any mine specified in the Schedule, shall be liable to account for the said books, documents or other papers to the Central Government and shall deliver them up to the Custodian or to such person as the Custodian may specify in this behalf.

(6) The Central Government may authorise the Custodian to exercise such of the powers of the owner including powers to borrow, as may be necessary for the proper management of the coal mine and the Central Government may also issue such directions to the Custodian as to his powers and duties as it may deem desirable in the circumstances of the case; and no other person, including the owner, shall, so long as such management continues, exercise any powers of management in relation to the coal mine or give any direction with regard to such management.

(7) The Custodian may also apply to the Central Government at any time for instructions as to the manner in which he shall conduct the management of the coal mine or in relation to any matter arising in the course of such management.

(8) The Custodian shall receive from the funds of the coal mine for the charge of management of which he is appointed under sub-section (1), such remuneration as the Central Government may fix ;

Provided that where a Government company has been appointed as the Custodian of more than one coal mine, the remuneration of the Custodian shall be received from the funds of each such coal mine in such proportion as may be determined by the Central Government.

- (9) The Custodian-General and every -
- (i) Additional Custodian-General,
 - (ii) Deputy Custodian-General,
 - (iii) Custodian, shall hold office during the pleasure of the Central Government.

(10) The Central Government shall receive, to the exclusion of all other persons, any monies due to the coal mine realised after the appointed day notwithstanding that such receipt pertains to a transaction made at any time before the appointed day.

6. (1) Every owner of a coal mines shall be given by the Central Government an amount in cash, for the vesting in it, under section 3, of the management of such mine. Payment of amount.

(2) For every month during which the management of a coal mine remains vested in the Central Government, the amount referred to in sub-section (1) shall be computed at the rate of twenty paise per tonne of coal on the highest monthly production of coal from such mine during any month in the years 1969, 1970, 1971 and 1972 ;

Provided that if in relation to any such coal mine, there was no production of coal during the said years the amount referred to in sub-section (1) shall be computed at the rate of twenty paise per tonne of such highest monthly coal producing capacity of the coal mine before the appointed day, as may be assessed and declared by the Coal Board:

Provided further that in relation to a coal mine, the operations of which were immediately before the appointed day under the control of a managing contractor, the amount as computed under this sub-section, shall be apportioned between the owner of the coal mine and such managing contractor in such proportions as may be agreed upon by or between the owner and such contractor, and in the event of there being no such agreement, in such proportions as may be determined by the principal civil court of original within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the head office of the coal mine is situated.

(3) For every month during which the management of a coke oven plant, which falls within the definition of coal mine, remains vested in the Central Government under this Ordinance, there shall be given by the Central Government, in cash, in addition to the amount specified in sub-section (1), to the owner of such coke oven plant, an amount computed at the rate of fifty paise per tonne of coke on the highest monthly production of coke from such coke oven plant during any month in the years 1969, 1970, 1971 and 1972.

CHAPTER III
MISCELLANEOUS

Penalties

7. If any person—

(a) fails to deliver to the Custodian any assets, books of account, registers or any other document in his custody relating to the coal mine in respect of the management of which the Custodian has been appointed, or

(b) retains any property of such coal mine or removes or destroys it, or

(c) fails to comply with the provisions contained in sub-section (2) or sub-section (5) or sub-section (6) of 4, or

(d) fails to comply with any directions issued under sub-section (1), read with sub-section (7), of section 4, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both.

Offences by companies.

8. (1) Where an offence under this Ordinance has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly :

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any offence under this Ordinance has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to, any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation—For the purposes of this section—

(a) “company” means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) “director”, in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

Mining companies not to be wound up by Court.

9. No proceeding for the winding up of a mining company, the management of whose coal mines has vested in the Central Government under this Ordinance, or for appointment of a Receiver or for any other order in respect of the business of such company, shall lie in any Court except with the consent of the Central Government.

Exclusion of period of operation of the Ordinance for computing period of limitation.

10. In computing the period of limitation prescribed by any law for the time being in force for any suit or application against any person by a mining company in respect of any matter arising out of any transaction in relation to any coal mine owned by such company, the time during which this Ordinance is in force shall be excluded.

11. The provisions of this Ordinance shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any law other than this Ordinance or in any decree or order of any Court.

Effect of Ordinance as other laws.

12. (1) The Central Government may, by notified order, direct that all or any of the powers exercisable by it under this Ordinance may also be exercised by any person or persons as may be specified in the order.

Delegation of powers.

(2) Whenever any delegation of power is made under sub-section (1), the person to whom such power has been delegated shall act under the direction, control and supervision of the Central Government.

13. (1) No suit prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Custodian-General, Additional Custodian-General, Deputy Custodian-General, any Custodian or authorised person in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Ordinance.

Protection of action taken in good faith.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or the Custodian-General, Additional Custodian-General, Deputy Custodian-General, any Custodian or authorised person for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Ordinance.

14. (1) If the Central Government is satisfied; after such inquiry as it may think fit that any contract or agreement entered into at any time within twelve months immediately preceding the appointed day, between the owner, agent or manager of a coal mine and any other person has been entered into in bad faith or is detrimental to the interests of the coal mine, it may make an order cancelling or varying (either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose) the contract or agreement and thereafter the contract or agreement shall have effect accordingly.

Contracts etc. in bad faith or detrimental may be cancelled or varied.

Provided that no contract or agreement shall be cancelled or varied except after giving to the parties to the contract or agreement a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (1) may make an application to the principal court of civil jurisdiction within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the head office of the coal mine is situated for the variation or reversal of such order and thereupon such court may confirm, modify or reverse such order.

15. If the Custodian is of opinion that any contract of employment entered into by any owner or agent of a coal mine at any time before the appointed day is unduly onerous, he may by giving to the employee one month's notice in writing or the salary or wages for one month in lieu thereof, terminate such contract of employment.

Power to terminate contract of employment.

16. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the provisions of this Ordinance.

Power to make rules.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

(a) the manner in which the coal mines shall be managed by the Custodian under the control and supervision of the Custodian-General ;

(b) the constitution of a Board of a management, by whatever name called, for advising the Custodian General in the management of the coal mines;

(c) the form and manner in which accounts of the coal mines shall be maintained;

(d) any other matter in relation to which such rule is required to be, or may be, made.

(3) Every rule made by the Central Government under this Ordinance shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

17. Nothing contained in this Ordinance shall apply to any coal mine—

(a) owned, managed or controlled by a Government company or by a corporation which is owned, managed or controlled by Government;

(b) owned or managed by a company engaged in the production of iron and steel;

Provided that clause (b) shall not extend to such part of the coal mine or production thereof which, in the opinion of the Central Government, is in excess of the requirements for the production of iron and steel by the company owning or managing such coal mine.

Provided further that any coal obtained from any such coal mine as is referred to in the foregoing proviso in excess of the requirement for the production of iron and steel by the company owning or managing such coal mine shall not be sold, delivered, transferred or otherwise disposed of except with the previous approval of the Central Government.

18. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Central Government may, by order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, remove the difficulty.

19. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act 1956, or in any memorandum or articles of association of any mining company or in any other instrument, no resolution passed at any meeting of the Board of directors or of the members of a mining company shall be given effect to unless approved by the Central Government.

(2) Subject to the other provisions contained in this Ordinance and subject to such exceptions, restrictions and limitations, if any, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, the Companies Act, 1956, shall continue to apply to every mining company in the same manner as they applied to it before the appointed day.

Coal mines to which this Ordinance shall not apply.

Power to remove difficulties.
