No.B.12012/11/2005-ICT, the 4th March, 2005. It has been observed that number of websites created by various Department/Corporations/Autonomous Bodies are not properly maintained or updated. As a result, these websites keep displaying old and outdated information. This creates a negative impression about the concerned Department as well as the State Government.

The portal or websites serves as an important link between the Government and citizens. It presents the face of the organization, its mission, vision, functions, activities, performance, etc. It provides features enabling members of the public to give their view/feedback for further improving governance. It is therefore imperative, that such creation of websites are regulated and monitored to ensure that the sites created are properly maintained/updated and linked.

In view of the above, the following instructions are issued for strict compliance.

1. Any Government Department/Corporation or autonomous Body desirous of opening a website shall obtain approval of Information & Communication Technology (ICT) of Planning & Programme Implementation Department, before opening a new website. Before approving the proposal, ICT will bring it to the notice of the Government.
2. In approving any proposal for creation of a new website, the ICT of Planning Department will take into consideration the arrangements made for updating and maintenance of the website by the Department/Corporation/Autonomous Body.
3. Once a website is created the Head of Department/Executive Officer of the Corporation/Autonomous Body shall ensure that the website is regularly updated and maintained and shall furnish a certificate to this effect every quarter.
4. ICT of Planning Department shall also review the operation of the existing websites of various Departments/Corporations/Autonomous Bodies in order to ensure that the Departments make arrangements for their maintenance and updation.
