POWERS & DUTIES OF THE VISITORS TO JAIL

The Board of Visitors shall pay a joint visit of inspection to the jail every quarter and individual Visitors ordinarily once a fortnight. At each quarterly meeting of the Board the Chairman shall draw up a roster of visits to be paid by each visitor during the next three months. This roster should ordinarily be drawn up so as to provide for fortnightly visits, but if any Board expressed a desire for weekly visits, the Chairman should arrange accordingly. Save in exceptional circumstances, visitors shall not visit the jail after lock-up or on Sundays. Visitors shall not ordinarily visit the jail on jail holidays, but if considered necessary permission to do so may be accorded at the discretion of the Jail Superintendent.

2. (1) It is the duty of a visitor to satisfy himself that the law and rules regarding the management of prisons and prisoners are duly carried out in the Jail, to visit all parts of the jail and to see all prisoners and to hear and enquire into any complaint that any prisoner may make.

(2) A visitor may call for and inspect any book or other record in the jail, provided that the Superintendent of Jail may decline to produce any book, paper or record for inspection if, for reasons to be recorded in writing, he considers such production undesirable.

(3) The Board of Visitors shall meet at the jail, inspect all buildings and prisoners, hear any complaints and petitions that may be preferred, inspect the prisoner's food and see that it is of good quality and properly cooked, examine the Punishment Book and satisfy themselves that it is up-to-date and that punishments awarded are in accordance with the rules, and scrutinise any case of long detention of undertrial prisoners.

3. A Visitor's Book shall be kept in every jail and shall be presented to the Board of Visitors and every individual visitor when the inspection of the jail has been completed. In this book the Board of Visitors as well as individual visitors shall record the date and hour of their visit and any remarks they may desire to make. Such remarks should be limited to a statement and fair criticism of the actual facts which come to their knowledge, and to any suggestions they may wish the Superintendent of Jail or the Inspector General of Prisons to consider. The Supdt. of Jail shall note the action taken by him in the column provided for the purpose and shall forward copies of all such entries in the Visitor's Book to the Inspector General of Prisons through the District Magistrate for such further orders as may be required; and when explanation is necessary, such explanation shall invariably accompany the copy. Any orders or remarks recorded by the Inspector General of Prisons shall be communicated to the visitor concerned. Whenever a visitor records remarks his remarks concerning the long detention of an undertrial prisoner, a copy of his remarks relating to such matter shall be forwarded to the District Magistrate. The I.G. Prisons may, if he thinks necessary, forward a copy of any visitor's remarks for the information of the Govt. When the Lt. Governor or the Minister in charge visits any jail a copy of his remarks should be submitted in duplicate to the Inspector General of Prisons through District Magistrate. Copies of Visitor's remarks on subdivisional Jails should invariably be submitted to the Inspector General of Prisons through the Deputy Commissioner of the District.
