Will the Hon'ble Minister in-charge Education & Human Resources Department be pleased to state -

- (a) Reasons why provincialisation of several/selected Middle & High Schools are delayed?
- (b) Reasons why a Teacher needs to have two years continuous service whereas non-teaching staff needs continuous service of only one year for absorption into the Government service in the proposed Schools for provincialisation?

Dr. H. THANSANGA,
MINISTER

: The process of provincialisation of selected Middle & High Schools is delayed since it is necessary to examine the particulars of the schools to be provincialised and of each staff member in regard to their service condition, and their eligibility for appointment as Headmasters and Teachers, as the case may be. These processes take time since good number of schools proposed for provincialisation are located in the interior places.

The job responsibilities between teaching and non-teaching staff are so different from each other. Non-teaching staff which normally composes of Ministerial Staff, Craft Teachers and menial cannot be considered at par with teaching staff whose primary responsibility is imparting of education to students. Hence two years continuous service is prescribed for teaching staff and one year for non-teaching staff for provincialised Schools.
